

THE LINK

MISSION STATEMENT

1. The Link is an independent village magazine that is distributed free of charge to all who live or work in Stansted Mountfitchet.
2. The Link is a Community Interest Company managed by a board of volunteer directors including representatives from the community and the Stansted Mountfitchet Parish Council. It shall include an Editor, a Chairman, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and at least one member of the committee shall be a member of Stansted Mountfitchet Parish Council.
3. The Link aims to be a high-quality medium for local news and other matters of interest or entertainment. It is open to all contributions but publication is subject to Editorial control.
4. The Link includes advertising from local businesses and organisations.
5. The Link serves the local community without distinction of gender, sexual orientation, race or of political, religious or other opinions. It does not intentionally publish party political propaganda or any matter of an offensive nature.
6. The Stansted Mountfitchet Parish Council is entirely responsible for the content of the Stansted Network section of The Link. This provides a means for the Parish Council and higher levels of local government to communicate with the village on local issues.
