EDITORIAL

The Link team is very pleased to feature a photograph on the front cover by Roy Fowler, former Minister of the local Free Church. He and his wife Christine are on their way to retirement in Wiltshire; see p 15 for further details. Many thanks to Roy for submitting this excellent photograph. Warmest wishes for a long and happy retirement from all of us.

We have another goodbye to make; after 30 years of writing regular Nature Notes articles for The Link under the pseudonym of Felix, Tony Wellings is also retiring. We have so enjoyed his wonderful articles for the magazine, and his contributions will be greatly missed. Thank you so much, Tony, for providing us with such fascinating insights into the natural world, often accompanied by lovely photos. You have certainly inspired many Stansted residents to go out, look around and listen carefully to all the wonderful birds, insects and so forth who share our local countryside. You have also instilled in us an appreciation and admiration for the world of plants. Please see p 31 for Tony's final article for us. We wish him and his family the very best. Now, on to a practical aspect of this: The Link team would really like someone else to take on the writing of a regular Nature Notes type of article. Please get in touch with one of us if you would like to do this. Happy August to everyone, whether you are braving the airports and going abroad, or whether you are staying within the UK.

CHILDREN CLIMB SNOWDON FOR CHARITY

On Saturday 28th August, my children Chloe and Sullivan, aged 10 and 7, will be scaling Mount Snowdon in Wales to raise money for Cancer Research UK. After sadly losing their Gran rapidly to breast cancer in 2019 they are determined to put their best feet forward towards a very good cause. Not just in remembering their Gran, Lesley Newton, but also in acknowledging everyone's personal losses and experiences with cancer.

At the summit of Culter Fell in South Lanarkshire

Having climbed several peaks in Scotland earlier this year, and enduring some very long walks during lockdown, they are hopeful their little legs and determination will enable them to make the nine-mile hike to the top of the summit and make the descent on foot! They intend to collect a stone from the summit and place it in the gardens of St Gemma's Hospice in Leeds who cared for their Gran in her final days. If you would like to support their cause please visit their JustGiving page: Elizabeth Newton is fundraising for Cancer Research UK (justgiving.com). They are aiming for £1,000 but all sponsorship is very gratefully received.

Investigators is a group for children aged around 7-11 years on Fridays 6.30pm-8pm in the Free Church Hall. We enjoy a mixture of games, challenges and creative activities. We also have a Bible story most weeks, and use this to stimulate discussion on topics relevant to children such as friendship, including and valuing everyone, sharing and encouraging others. Investigators has a lively, friendly and supportive atmosphere, with children from at least five different primary schools, and it has been successful in helping some quite shy children to boost their confidence. Investigators is run by Stansted Family Church. Although some children who come attend a church, or a church school, most do not and everyone is welcome. Just before Covid we made lanterns, and some bug-themed crafts, as well as playing various lively and quieter games. Dodgeball and balloon volleyball are definite favourites, as well as Islands and Sharks and Human Noughts and Crosses. The children have also created puppet plays and taken part in drama activities sometimes. No two Fridays are the same!

We are planning to return on 10th September after a long break caused by the pandemic. If your child would like to try out Investigators, please contact me as soon as possible as places are allocated on a first-come, first-served basis. Although most children attending are 7+ we do welcome some 6-year-olds, especially siblings. We know many do not want to wait until their 7th birthday to join in the fun, so there is some flexibility after their 6th birthday has been reached. All leaders are DBS checked, have appropriate safeguarding training, and are experienced in working with children.

FOREST HALL SCHOOL

www.foresthallschool.org

Young members of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Questioning (LGBTQ+) community were able to express themselves among their school peers with time devoted to diversity. The school acknowledged Diversity Week with a programme of activities to bring about conversation. Students who attend the school's LGBTQ+ club and the student executive team helped to create a display of handprints decorated by their classmates showing their support to the community. Students also took part in a quiz about the LGBTQ+ community to get them thinking about the diversity of people around them. They also watched videos of young people's stories of growing up in the LGBTQ+ community and took part in a house challenge based around Diversity Week with maths, general knowledge and celebrity sections.

Sarah Power, enrichment lead, said: "The month of June is Pride month when we work with the LGBTQ+ charity Just Like Us to mark Diversity Week. We sign up every year to access their fantastic resources, masterclasses, workshops and guest speakers to promote LGBTQ+ in class. It was just so nice to see our students in this community being themselves completely in a safe space. They are very young and it was lovely to see them really happy. It was great to put up the display of hundreds of 'helping hands' to show our whole community coming together. It is important to show we are supportive of all of our students, regardless of their gender, background or sexuality. Students have been at home for a lot more time than usual and so have been exposed to just one or two opinions, which has had an effect on them. It has been good to be able to expose them to more."

THE PLACE ON THE HILL

Open at last! We are delighted that The Place will be open every Wednesday 10.00am-noon, starting on 4th August. We will be in the hall rather than the church foyer, to enable people to socially distance if they wish to do so. Initially we are just welcoming adults and will be following whatever Covid guidance is in place for the hospitality sector. Although there is no longer a requirement to wear a face covering, visitors are welcome to do so if they prefer. There is no need to book, just turn up. We look forward to seeing you.

DAISY MAY'S FARM

www.daisymaysfarm.org

As you may well now know, we are open and our animals just love seeing all our wonderful visitors. They are all having such a super time being fed and having a fuss made of them, so please keep on coming. We still have lots of babies in all sorts of shapes, furriness and sizes, so be sure to come and see them – they are soooooo cute! We are open 9.00am-3.00pm every day except Wednesdays and Sundays and we are operating a booking service which you can find on our website. On entry to the farm and once checked in, you will be given some animal food and you can then visit and feed our lovely animals and see how much they have grown. We also have the small animals' enclosure, the play equipment, our picnic area (you will need to bring your own picnic) and our den building area. You can splash in the stream, visit our old friends the horses and explore our brilliant woodland walk; don't miss out this summer.

More exciting news, we now have a campsite, and it is in the most fabulous part of the farm and would make a brilliant staycation for anyone. It is all ready and waiting for guests, so if you fancy a stay, get in touch via our website or Facebook page. Come on down to the farm, we cannot wait to see you! We are at Hall Road, Elsenham CM22 6DN.

MINDFULNESS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

What is Mindfulness?

In a nutshell, mindfulness is paying attention to what is happening in the moment. It is about connecting to your breathing, tuning into your senses and listening to what your body is saying. It teaches you how to remain grounded and how to respond to situations thoughtfully instead of reacting impulsively. Teenagers can at times feel especially overwhelmed with what is going on in their mind and body, and this is where mindfulness comes in. These overwhelming feelings and emotions can arise through pressures created by everyday things such as:

- responsibilities from school, college and university
- high expectations from others around them
- emotional break ups and conflict

The feelings manifest themselves in symptoms of anxiety, stress and other mood disorders. Mindfulness provides techniques to deal with these over-arching emotions through the practice of meditation, group activities, discussions and games. I run fun and inspiring workshops which allow young people to explore gratitude and kindness, and assist in building resilience, self-esteem and confidence by helping to:

- build connection and communication skills
- focus on strengths within oneself as well as others
- explore empathy, compassion and humility in a non-judgemental environment
- increase positivity
- understand how emotions can manifest in the body
- regulate emotions.

Workshops are based on the Youth Mindfulness SOMA programme, and run over four modules. Day 1 can be attended as a taster day, Days 1 and 2 can be attended as a mini workshop; for full benefits, the four-day course is recommended. The days are made up of four 45-minute sessions with breaks and lunch, and there will be a certificate ceremony at the end of the fourth day which parents/carers are welcome to attend. During the school holidays, there are courses at various venues in Uttlesford including Stansted Free Church Hall. See our Facebook page www.facebook.com/dragonflymoonmindfulness for timetables, venues and pricing.

BRAIN TRAINING

www.clareharding.com

Mouth taping reduces snoring, increases immune system, improves sleep quality and reduces anxiety. Yes, taping your mouth shut at night sounded awful to me too. Read on. A good way to start this daunting drill is to start small. Get some micropore tape from the chemist, which is the best for this task. Others are too weedy and just slide off. Shut your mouth and place a small bit of tape vertically over the centre of your lips and go to bed. You will breathe out of the corners of your mouth during the night, but your mouth cannot hang open like a basking shark, so the snoring will be less and the tongue can sit higher within the mouth.

As you get used to this, increase the amount of mouth you cover, working up to covering the whole mouth so you have to breathe through your nose all night long. Now you get the benefits of nasal breathing: the warmed air passing through the mucus membranes, our first line of defence. When we get very stressed, we mouth breathe. Therefore, breathing through the nose is interpreted by the brain as low stress levels, hence why it is calming. When we are asleep, we fight bears! At least we fight them calmly. So nasal breathing will help improve the quality of your sleep. It may also help teeth grinding and sleep apnoea. Nasal breathing is far more efficient, and one theory is that it is lack of oxygen that makes the teeth snap shut for a good grind, or wakes us up briefly to take a good breath. No, it will not cure everything but it is a good move in the right direction for minimal outlay and a moment of time, plus a handful of determination.

LET'S TALK, STANSTED!

www.stanstedmentalhealth.org

Our mental health theme for August is gardening and we are delighted to announce the launch of a new project for men. The Veg Shed is a new group based in the village and is part of the Essex Shed Network. Men's Sheds are places where men can meet, make friends, get involved in a community activity and have fun. Men aged 45+ have one of the highest suicide rates for any demographic and many suffer with isolation, work and family stress as well as financial struggles. Meeting in a safe space with others is a great way to share your burdens and take your mind off your daily struggles.

The new meeting group is based at the Elms Farm Allotments where we will meet every Sunday to manage an allotment plot and grow fruit and vegetables. All men are welcome, whether experienced growers or complete novices. To find out more visit the website above and look for Veg Shed or call the number below. We also run a weekly walking group, Muddy Walkers, every Thursday at 7.30pm, which is open to everyone. This is a gentle way to walk, talk and connect with nature. Everyone is welcome to get in touch with the team, whatever your state of mind. For further information, visit our website, email, or join us on Facebook www.facebook.com/groups/letstalkstansted.

STANSTED MOUNTFITCHET WINDMILL

www.stanstedwindmill.co.uk

I must begin by saying a big thank you to those people who have told me that they would like to volunteer as stewards when the windmill is allowed to be opened again. By the time you read this, we will know what the Government's new guidelines are, which will enable me to set out opening dates for August, September and October. We are continuing with preparations for the windmill fête as we are still hopeful that this will take place on Bank Holiday Monday 30th August from 1.00pm-5.00 pm. I still have a few spaces left so anyone interested in having one should get in touch with me as soon as possible on the number below, as spaces are going fast.

Finally, good friends of the windmill, John Salmon and his wife Dot have, once again, been supplying us with many plants this year which are placed outside the front of my house, Carte Blanche, Mill Side, where they can be obtained for any reasonable donation, in aid of the maintenance of the windmill. I would like to thank all those generous people who have already done so.

THE STANSTED IN BLOOM GROUP

By the time you read this, the judging for the 2021 Garden Competitions will have taken place and we will be preparing to announce the winners and present the prizes. Details of the winners will be published via social media as well as in the September edition of The Link.

Lucy Loveridge takes care of the Stansted in Bloom planter outside the storage unit on Chapel Hill

As I write we are delighted to have more than 30 entrants across the six categories which is significantly more than we have attracted in the past, so the judges faced a busy day when they visited the gardens on Sunday 11th July.

At the same time as organising our own garden competition we are also preparing our entry in the Anglia in Bloom Competition. In a normal year judges would tour the village but because of the pandemic they have decided on a virtual competition this year. We have identified the following as sites we think have some merit and hopefully will impress the judges.

- Spring Planting Display - Tulips at Blythwood Gardens
- Area of sustainable planting - High Lane Junction
- Public space- Elms Farm Allotments
- Hanging basket(s) - The 80+ baskets funded by the Parish Council
- Wild life/wild flower area - Aubrey Buxton Nature Reserve
- Local authority planting - Memorial Gardens
- Churchyard/crematorium/garden of remembrance - St Mary's Church Yard/ St Theresa's Church
- It's your neighbourhood - The Mountfitchet Care Home

Paris Legore judging a garden on Gilbey Crescent

For each entry we can submit five photographs supported by a written submission of no more than 50 words. We would welcome any photos people might have taken of any of the sites being nominated. Please email them to me.

STANSTED MOUNTFITCHET U3A

www.u3asites.org.uk/stansted/home

Twelve members of the Walking and Nature Appreciation Group met on 23rd June, a lovely sunny day, for a walk from Stansted across the fields to Ugley Green, returning via Buxton's Nature Reserve. In High Lane they saw a magnificent display of poppies where the ground had been disturbed by construction work and near the old village pump on Ugley Green they watched a red kite circling overhead. They enjoyed the walk and were looking forward to the next one in July. The Strummers (Ukulele) group have also been meeting and will be playing at St Mary's Church on 8th August 3.30pm-4.30pm as part of their Open Sunday (see below). Groups have also been meeting on Zoom, such as the Literature Study Group, which this year so far has read The Periodic Table by Primo Levi, The Citadel by A J Cronin and The Secret Life of Bees by Sue Monk Kidd. A number of groups, such as Yoga and Pilates, are planning to restart in September.

The Strummers playing at St Mary's Church in July 2017

The General Meeting is on Thursday 19th August 1.30pm for 2.00pm in St John's Hall, when Eve Regelous will give a talk called History of Tea and Afternoon Tea Destinations; we look forward to seeing you. We aim to hold our AGM in October. Please note that we are welcoming nominations from all members for posts on the Committee.

FRIENDS OF ST MARY'S CHURCH

Our first Open Sunday since Covid struck brought many lovely people to church. It was so nice to see all those of you who came. It was almost like normal times. The music played and then ... in came Tim who asked if he could play the organ! How wonderful for us! Thanks to him for making the open day even more special. Our next Open Sunday is 8th August at 2.00pm-5.00pm and once again the kettle will be on and a warm welcome awaits. There will also be a performance by the Stansted Mountfitchet U3A Strummers at 3.30pm-4.30pm. Come along for a foot tapping sing-along and a fun afternoon.

Last reminder now about theatre: The Secret Garden on Saturday 21st August at 1.00pm. I know many of you have already purchased your tickets online to help us with seating arrangements. Tickets are available from www.thisismytheatre.com or by phone 07732 253311. This is a truly amazing theatre group and I am sure all the family will absolutely enjoy live theatre right here on your doorstep. Hope to see you all very soon.

STANSTED EVENING WI

The County Annual Meeting was held via Zoom at the end of June and Jenny Wraith represented us. She said that only 114 members were present. Essex is one of the largest areas in the country and there are 198 Institutes in our county with 8500 members. The meeting opened with a solo rendition of Jerusalem. Our County Chairman said that the pandemic has not caused membership to drop as much as feared. There were two speakers: Danny Oakes and Nick Newlands. Danny played rugby throughout his school days and became a member of Thurrock Athletic Club. His ambition to be a professional rugby player was dashed when he was involved in a serious accident at the age of 21 in which he lost his right arm. He became determined to succeed despite this and tried various things before becoming an international Paralympic athlete and, as a runner, won a gold medal in the Athens Paralympics of 2004. He retired from top athletics in 2009 but has been involved in cycling, running marathons and commentating ever since.

Nick talked about his work for the charity Associated Country Women of the World (ACWW) of which the National Federation of WIs was one of the founding members. This supports rural women, helping them with training and development programmes and enabling them to earn money and improve family life. Nick sits on a committee which involves women's rights, some of which are being breached by governments. Most Institutes raise money each year for ACWW, so Jenny found Nick's information on the various projects very interesting. One of these is the Revolving Piggery Project, a scheme whereby women are given four piglets to rear and when they have increased in number, they donate two piglets to continue the project.

We welcome any new members to our Institute; our outside meetings are advertised so just turn up if you wish, and hopefully we will soon be able to meet as usual at the Day Centre. Our President's phone number is in The Link directory for any enquiries.

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH

I am writing this article on Wednesday 30th June and England has just beaten Germany 2-0 in Euro 2020. By the time you read this we will know the outcome of the tournament. I am going to predict we beat Italy in the final and that football really did come home this summer. However, I do not really know what the future holds because the future is uncertain. The prudent may plan for their future; they may study, work hard, marry well, set aside money, look after their health, but no-one really knows what is round the corner. If the last year or so has taught us anything, surely it is that.

So, is life just a scary roller-coaster of unpredictability and potential disaster that we cannot predict or control? It may seem like that sometimes, but for those with a true faith in God, and an ongoing relationship with Him, it is not. In Psalm 23 David declares that the Lord is his shepherd and then goes on to explain the consequence of his relationship with God. He tells us that he lacks nothing, that he is directed to green pastures and led beside quiet waters. His soul is refreshed, and he is guided along the right paths. Even when David walked through the darkest valley he did not fear because his shepherd was with him, comforting him. The psalm ends: "Surely goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever." Jesus said in John 10, 'I am the gate for the sheep ... whoever enters through me will be saved ... I have come that they may have life and have it to the full'.

Our Christian beliefs are conventional, we are just doing church differently.

We have been pleased to meet in person again since 20th July, but our regular Tuesday evening venue is still unavailable as The Link goes to print. If you would like to join us on a Tuesday evening or a Sunday, please get in touch as venues may change closer to the time. All meetings offer a combination of modern worship music, Bible-based talk/discussion and prayer. We hope to resume the Alpha Course in the autumn, and Investigators children's group in September. We are happy to receive prayer requests from anyone, and regularly see prayers answered. If you are looking for Christians with a contemporary outlook, a desire to grow in our faith, and a vision to benefit our community, why not get in touch?

IN MEMORIAM

JEAN WINDER

9th February 1922 – 25th May 2021

As many of you will know, our dear Mum passed away at home recently. She was an amazing lady and a much-loved mother and grandmother and we shall all miss her terribly. She lived in Stansted for over 70 years and became a well-known member of the community, still remembered as Sister Winder from her days working at the Herts and Essex Hospital, and as the school nurse at St Mary's Primary school, which was then in the centre of the village. She was also very much involved with the Huw Johnson Club, which she really loved. Many people in the village will remember her from the Day Centre, as she enjoyed lunches there, bingo at Norman's Court and visiting the library regularly on a Saturday afternoon.

Mum loved living in Stansted and saw many changes over the years. She had lots of friends and wonderful neighbours and it is lovely that she is so fondly remembered. Thank you for all the kind messages and cards that we have received and for the generous donations to St Clare Hospice and the Huw Johnson Club in Mum's memory. We would also like to thank the doctors, nurses and staff at Stansted Surgery who have taken great care of Mum over the years, and our heartfelt thanks go to our Community Matron, Liz Brough, and the fantastic team of district nurses who looked after Mum during her recent illness. Thank you also to St Clare Hospice, their team of Hospice at Home carers and to the carers from Care Just 4 You. She was a very special lady who will be missed so much by her family, friends and neighbours, but never forgotten.

Peter and Margaret

THANK YOU TO CROSSWORD ROGER

This month sees the publication of the final crossword in our series compiled by Roger Wardle. Sadly, Roger died last year, but his widow Sheila invited us to continue printing his crosswords in his memory, and we hope Link readers have found them of value, if somewhat challenging at times!

If there are any budding crossword compilers out there, we would be very pleased to hear from you. Please email: editor@stanstedlink.org.uk or call 812690.

www.mountfitchetgardenclub.co.uk

Hopefully you are all enjoying being able to get out into the garden and are making the most of the sunny weather. The harvesting of vegetable patches has begun; home grown food tastes so different, the short time between plot and pot makes such a difference. The flower borders are bursting with colour too; it is amazing how much growth and colour you get from those small seeds and tiny plants in just a couple of months! If you sit with your eyes closed and just listen – the garden is alive with the buzz of bees and bird song. Dead-heading your plants and roses will help them to continue to flower over the summer. Some plants though need a real hair-cut; hardy geraniums are a good example. When the first flush of flowers is over, cut the plants right down leaving just the newest shoots and you will get a second flush of flowers towards the end of the summer. It is also an ideal time to start sowing biennial seeds (Sweet William, wallflowers, honesty, foxgloves, etc.) so they get a head start. They will start to flower as early as May next year.

Open Gardens

Every week more and more gardens are opening their doors and welcoming visitors again. Many of the National Garden Scheme open gardens are small family gardens and on occasions the number of visitors has to be restricted; it is always advisable to check in case booking is required.

Future Meetings

At the moment the Day Centre is still closed. However, there is light at the end of the tunnel as there are on-going talks with a third party regarding the running of the centre. As soon as we hear anything we will let everyone know. In the meantime, enjoy your gardens.

Everyday Care from Someone Local You Can Trust!

At our monthly Open Day on Sunday 22nd August, we will celebrate the variety of trees at the gardens which reflect the enthusiasm of plant collectors in the Victorian and Edwardian era. Many of the venerable species are not native to the UK; for example there is a sequoia by the car park: Wellingtonia gigantea (named after the Duke of Wellington after his death in 1852); a huge cedar of Lebanon, planted by Edward Prince of Wales in the late 19th century and a marsh cypress, which is native to the South East of America.

Harold Peto used trees to create structure in his designs for the gardens in 1902. He introduced formal avenues of pleached limes, which enclosed the Countess' treehouse in an oak, and limes and yews lined the side of what we now call the Glade. The Countess of Warwick's son, Maynard Greville, added further trees.

Do join us on 22nd August to learn about our trees. We will showcase those which, by dint of their height or girth, are county champions and our national champion apple tree, the Easton Countess. This old apple tree could not be identified and DNA analysis of its leaves confirmed that there was no known match, therefore it is unique to our gardens. We will also welcome the return of Woodwind of Stortford, who are itching to get out to play again once that is allowed.

Open Days are now by ticket, obtainable through our website, our Facebook page or direct from Trybooking.com. If you cannot visit us on a Sunday, why not come for an Open Thursday? It is our main volunteering day, so visitors get to see the hard work underway. There is no need to purchase tickets in advance. Details of the more limited offer on Thursdays can be found on our website.

RANDOM JOTTINGS

A few old harvest related tools

As it is harvest time, I searched the shed for a few old tools which would have been used at this time of the year. The photo shows the scythe which was the universal tool for cutting the corn for centuries before mechanisation took over.

In the angle of the scythe is a plaited leather belt with a holder for the sharpening stone, which was used little and often to maintain a sharp edge on the blade. The simple cranked tool with a hook is a wimple or straw twister which was used to make short straw ropes from the wheat straw which were then used to bind together the sheaves of cut corn.

The other photo shows this operation in a harvest scene on an old biscuit tin. There is a reaping sickle and a heftier bagging hook which I used recently to clear an overgrown patch, along with the crotched stick which was used to hook up any stuff lying flat.

NEWS FROM YOUR LOCAL COUNCILS

Grass cutting the Memorial Gardens, Chapel Hill

GRASS CUTTING

As any green-fingered residents may well know, warm, wet summers like the one we have had this year are a boon to our hedges, lawns and verges. Days of sunlight and showers result in lush, green foliage that unfortunately becomes quickly overgrown.

Maintaining the village's green spaces isn't just about ensuring they don't become unsightly. It is also about ensuring public safety. Overgrown hedges can block the views of motorists and tall grass can hide obstacles on footpaths from unwary pedestrians.

Cutting grass and clipping hedges to protect public safety is a task the Council takes seriously. This year £21,200 of our budget is set aside for this purpose. In the summer months, between April and September, the Council's contractors follow a timetable that sees them mow all local authority administered lawns and verges twice a month. This is no small task. There are more than 50 grass areas in Stansted. This number includes the Cemetery and Churchyard, the Recreation Ground, Bentfield Greens and most of the verges along Cambridge Road.

Our efforts do not go unnoticed. At a recent Full Council Meeting, a long-time resident praised the Council for the upkeep of the Memorial Gardens on Chapel Hill, saying they looked the best they had ever been. Residents are also quick to point out areas of the village in need of attention. But arranging a cut or a quick prune can take time. Why is this?

Part of the reason for this is down to levels of local government responsibility. Not all of the hedges and verges fall under the Parish Council's control. Take the neglected verges at Foresthall Park - those belong to Essex Highways. Meanwhile Uttlesford District Council retain ownership of many of the verges surrounding the Mountfitchet Estate.

Clouding the picture of responsibility further, the Parish Council has entered into a formal agency agreement with Essex County Council to cut the areas in Stansted they otherwise would be duty bound to up-keep. This agreement has been in place for very many years and therefore does not extend to Foresthall Park! (Boring fact - the Parish Council cannot spend public money on maintaining land which it does not own or have a legal agreement for - hence we can't just take on the Essex-owned bits of FHP).

So who should you report to a patch of grass that needs cut or hedge that needs a trim?

In the first instance contact the Parish Council. We will be able to identify which authority is responsible for the land in question. If it falls under our care, we can work with our contractor to resolve the issue. We can also raise your concern with other tiers of local government when responsibility lies elsewhere.

STANSTED CEMETERY

One area of the village that demonstrated exemplary community and Council co-operation on grass cutting has been the Stansted Cemetery. The grass appeared to be running riot and residents rightly brought this to our attention, though all was not necessarily as it seemed.

Parts of the cemetery where spring daffodils had grown were deliberately allowed to become fallow. Best practice calls for vegetation in such spots to be left for between 6-8 weeks. This affords time for vegetation to die back naturally so next year bulbs will bloom successfully.

Letting nature take its course meant grass and weeds in these areas thrived without a mow. Now the waiting period has passed, the normal cycle of mowing has resumed and the overgrowth has been brought under control.

Even well maintained hedges can obscure street signs in summer months

The installation of a rabbit-proof fence at the start of the year has also had an unintended consequence. The strimmers used to deal with the thick vegetation in the rest of the cemetery are too powerful for the fence. Cutting growth too close to it would result in the netting being torn. Avoiding this has meant allowing foliage to grow longer at the cemetery's edge.

Strimming to the edge of the cemetery risks damage to the rabbit fence

And then there has been the nature of the ground itself. The cemetery is densely populated with graves and grave-stones which make cutting the grass challenging if damage is to be avoided. Over the summer, the Council's contractor has been training up a new staff member to take on this task. While they have been learning the ropes, there has been more space for weeds and grass to grow. It is hoped with time and experience tighter, neater cuts of the grass in the cemetery will naturally result.

The contractor kindly scheduled an extra cut for the cemetery. We are pleased to report that it is looking in much better shape now. We would like to thank the public for bringing this issue to our attention, as well as for their patience whilst we sought an explanation and arranged a remedy.

STREET BEATS

Nikki Morris
Police Community
Support Officer

Nikki Morris is keen to meet you to discuss crime-related matters at her Street Beat events. The PCSO, who is partly funded by the Parish Council, sets her stall out each month at a venue around the village to hear residents' concerns about crime in the area.

PCSO Morris says the meet-and-greet sessions are vital, not just to pick up intelligence about local crime from the public, but also because the events serve as a reminder that the police are active in the community fighting crime.

At a recent event, PCSO Morris and Police Constable Steve Sharma chatted to residents outside the Surgery. A busy session saw them offer advice on how to manage online abuse and how to deal with intrusive neighbours, as well as strengthen community ties by minding a shopper's dog! The public were also invited to take away free torches, stickers to ward off cold callers, personal alarms and door-handle alarms (useful for securing a shed).

Over the summer PCSO Morris has been busy conducting speed checks in Stansted and ensuring knives are kept off our streets by manning a knife arch at the train station. She says that much local crime is low level, typically confined to issues of anti-social behaviour and neighbour disputes.

"I would advise people not to get involved themselves if there is a problem relating to anti-social behaviour," she says. "The safest thing is to write down the details of the incident and report the situation to the police using the 101 number."

She adds that not all anti-social behaviour is necessarily a crime and urges the public to engage with Uttlesford District Council, which has a dedicated team to deal with the issue.

The next Street Beat session is on 29 July at Foresthall Park. Times and dates are subject to change.

PLATINUM JUBILEE 2022

It is time to prepare for HM The Queen's Platinum Jubilee in 2022 (image - Dmitry Naumov, Dreamstime.com)

In 2022, Her Majesty The Queen will become the first British Monarch to celebrate a Platinum Jubilee, seventy years of service, having acceded to the throne on 6th February 1952 when Her Majesty was 25 years old.

A highlight of next year's celebrations to mark this achievement will be a bank holiday weekend from June 2-5. This has been set aside for public events and community festivities to honour the Queen.

It is never too soon for residents to start planning if they wish to get involved. This is especially true if you wish to organise your own Big Lunch Royal Street Party and a road or street needs to be closed. For that you will need approval from Essex Highways. You are reminded not to delay before they get swamped by similar requests.

NEW COUNCILLORS

After the local elections in May and the recent co-option of two councillors, we are pleased to welcome three new faces to the Parish Council.

First to come on board was Paul Davies. He was elected to represent constituents of the north ward of the parish in May's local elections and stood for the Conservative Party.

Paul and his family moved to the village in 2019 and were previously residents of Little Dunmow, where Paul served as an Uttlesford District Councillor for four years prior to relocating.

Party affiliations aside, he is keen to put people before politics and to promote anything that stands to benefit the community.

Thomas Smith was co-opted as a councillor in June. An accountant by profession, Thomas moved to Stansted with his wife to enjoy living close to the countryside. He has experience helping communities in East London to access local authority services.

He is a strong advocate for more affordable housing in the area for younger residents, and is keen to improve efficiency and accountability at the council for the community. "I want to be an effective advocate for all residents, making sure their interests and the community has a voice to improve local services," he says.

Also co-opted at the same time as Thomas was Anne-Marie Guney. She is a nursery practitioner and was a proprietor of a public house. While living in the village for the last two and a half years, she has volunteered at Elms Farm and assisted Stansted Surgery with its Covid jab roll-out.

Anne-Marie is particularly proud of initiating a project during the pandemic that saw 900 pairs of surgical scrubs made for the NHS in just 12 weeks.

DISTRICT COUNCIL NEWS

Ayub Khan
District Councillor
reports

Vote of No Confidence

The Stansted and Stort Valley Councillors, as well as members from other opposition groups, produced a motion of No Confidence in the R4U Leader and Cabinet at Uttlesford District Council (UDC) on 28th June. The motion was put because since being elected in 2019, R4U has presided over a catalogue of failures. These include a failed appeal on Stansted Airport expansion where the Inspectors have awarded costs against UDC, a current police investigation into one or more R4U councillors and a culture of bullying and deceit. The loss of the appeal on airport expansion will be expensive. UDC legal fees alone are in the region of £1.1m, add in Manchester Airport Group's costs, and you can see a bill of more than £2.5m. This is money that could have paid for valuable services across the district. The Council's accounts for 19/20 have still not been signed off by the External Auditor and whilst the police and internal investigation continues, the 20/21 accounts will remain unsigned. The number of R4U councillors meant that the motion was defeated, yet we have exposed the maladministration of R4U. Integrity matters in any political administration because the public demand it. You can listen to the debate as the recording is now available on the UDC website.

A new Chief Executive

Rob Tinlin is the Interim Chief Executive at UDC. Rob replaces Dawn French who has decided to spend more time with her family after several years working in local government. Rob brings significant experience to UDC, having previously led a large unitary authority. His immediate priorities will be to focus on the big issues such as the Local Plan, as well as provide good leadership to the paid staff of UDC. Stansted Councillors have already met with Rob and very much look forward to working with him.

Local Plan

Work continues to develop a new Local Plan for the district. The new plan will now require the district to build 706 new homes per year until 2040. The previous plan which R4U withdrew had a requirement of 636. The increased number will put pressure on the whole of the district as well as our own neighbourhood development plan for Stansted. Put simply, speculative development as well as developers building homes that offer no additional facilities for the community such as new doctor's surgeries, dentists and schools is not sustainable. Clearly, the Conservative government continue to push through new planning laws which is making it difficult for local authorities to oppose. House building is needed, but they must be carefully thought through and planned. Sadly, this does not seem to be the case.

Day Centre Provision

The plans for our new community provision including The Day Centre, operated through Touchpoint, are progressing well. I am working with colleagues at UDC to secure funding to enable some refurbishment to take place at the premises. This is a valuable service and the exciting plans that Touchpoint have will be of great benefit to the whole of Stansted.

Stansted South District Councillor surgeries

Now that restrictions are beginning to ease, Cllr Melvin Caton and I will be re starting surgeries for the community in Stansted South from September. These will take place on a Saturday 10 am – 12 pm. Further details and dates will be posted on local Facebook pages as well as the Parish Council website.

Finally, it is worth taking the time to congratulate the team at Stansted Surgery for their continued work in administering the vaccine. In addition, the contribution of the range of volunteers and community groups across Stansted from litter picking, to flood control, to speed watch cannot be underestimated. Thank you for all that you do.

I want to take the opportunity to thank everyone who has contributed to Human Roots over the last year, whether that be in time, expertise, donations or love! I want to say a massive thank you from the bottom of my heart. Without your endless support and enthusiasm for our charity, we could not function. The last year has seen so many struggles through the challenges of Covid and all that it has brought. For us, it has been nonstop work. We were lucky enough to welcome eight new volunteers over the last nine months who have been instrumental in the development and inner workings that make us so great.

In 2020, I oversaw the maintenance and management of the allotment on my own, which enabled nearly 60 locals to benefit from fresh produce. This year we have had the help of an additional four volunteers on the allotment who have been amazing to work with and have made the workload so much more bearable and fun. We are hoping to be able to help more people this year by making more of our produce available to those in need, so if you know someone or are someone who needs fresh food, please get in touch via the contact form on our website. We are still looking for key volunteers to help in administrative roles, governors and skilled gardeners looking for more responsibility in the management and maintenance of the allotment. We are gearing up for 2022 and need all the help we can get. To get in touch please contact us on the volunteering section of our website. Without you there is no us!

THANK YOU FROM ARTHUR

I would like to say a very big thank you to the three ladies, two men and the paramedic who helped me in Crafton Green after I had a fall there on Monday 5th July. I would also like to thank the two policemen who were the only people able to lift me off the road where I had fallen, did my shopping, and then took me home and made me a cup of tea. I am pleased to say that I have made a full recovery!

STORT VALLEY ROTARY

The Club has continued to seek ways to support our community despite restrictions imposed by the pandemic. In June after six months of planning, we launched our latest initiative, the Helping Herts campaign. This is by far the most ambitious project to be launched in the history of our Club and aims to help plug disastrous funding gaps in some of our most vital community services as we emerge from lockdown and also celebrate our county.

Our President Gordon Morrison making a heart sign

The project, the brainchild of Gordon Morrison and designed with his professional team, is highly focused and is being rolled out across both digital and offline channels. Our immediate ambition is to raise £500,000 by the end of 2021 to help our Hertfordshire Hospices and Citizens Advice continue their vital and valuable work. To find out how you might help, email helpinghertscampaign@gmail.com or visit www.helpingherts.com. This website gives you lots of good ideas for starting your own fundraising campaign. You may wish to become a corporate sponsor or you may prefer to help us spread the word on social media by sharing, liking, or commenting on our posts. # THE HUNDRED PARISHES SOCIETY - POSTCARDS

www.hundredparishes.org.uk

On a recent visit to Thaxted's Tourist Information Centre, I could not resist buying their new set of postcards, featuring some of the town's well-known views. Nowadays, it is quite unusual to see postcards for sale and even rarer to receive one in the post. How times have changed.

Picture postcards became extremely popular in the UK after the introduction in 1902 of the format with a picture on the front and a divided back - half for the address and the other half for a message. Pictures were generally black and white but sometimes coloured.

Popularity waned after the First World War but it remained customary to send postcards to family and friends from somewhere visited on holiday or a day out. That custom has now almost died out, no doubt due in part to the availability - albeit only in this century - of more immediate means of exchanging messages and photos electronically.

Great Bardfield Fountain and Church 1905

Great Hormead Windmills

Saffron Walden High Street

The Bridge, Linton (Cambs)
Linton with Railway Bridge

Many people used picture postcards for sending short messages. Until 1918 it cost only an old halfpenny to send a card; that is 480 cards for £1 (today's price is 66 pence per card). In those early days, there could be as many as five postal deliveries in a day, so it was not unreasonable to expect a reply the same day.

Almost every town and village had its own postcard or set of postcards, not just seaside towns. Within the Hundred Parishes, it seems that only one parish has never had a postcard: Flich Green, which became a parish only in 2008. Many of those old cards have survived and often provide a revealing insight into our past and into an earlier way of life, such as buildings, roads, transport and dress.

We had a Zoom meeting of Forum members on 2nd July and are pleased to give an update on what we are doing. The Accountancy Practice has stayed open during the pandemic with staff working from home. The company wanted to give something back to the community during the pandemic and started a community outreach programme. It launched the Community Fund Grant Scheme in April. A grant value of £6,000 will be available until April 2022. Monthly grants of £500 will be given to individuals, businesses or communities who need financial support. For example, businesses can apply for funds which could also be used for matched funding for business grants. These extra funds will help to support businesses where needed, to get them back on their feet. The Accountancy Practice is also encouraging others in the community to help out with fundraising for particular causes. For example, the company awarded £500 to the Basingbourn Primary School's bereavement fund. An anonymous donor contacted The Accountancy Practice and matched the £500 funding which was gratefully received.

Staff from The Accountancy Practice handing over the award to the school

If you would like to apply for a grant as part of the community project, then get in touch with the company. Check for eligibility, applications and further details on www.theaccountancypractice.com. Send applications to lucille@theaccountancypractice.com.

To keep the flame of live music burning, music@stansted have arranged for the Brook Brass wind ensemble to perform an informal concert - weather and Covid rules permitting! - on Sunday 5th September at 4.00pm in the gardens of St John's Church. Their programme will include music from across the centuries up to present day favourites. Everyone is welcome - just come along, bring chairs or rugs if you like, sit and enjoy an hour of live music with friends and family.

Admission is free to all, although donations to the musicians will, of course, be welcomed. Please note that toilet facilities will not be available. For more details, visit www.musicatstansted.co.uk.

RANDOM JOTTINGS

No Mow May seemed like a good idea at the time. Leaving the lawn mower in the shed for a whole month and as a result doing our bit to provide for the pollinating insects; everybody wins right? Consequently, during the month of May our garden was satisfyingly abuzz with bees all busy doing their thing; the grass grew apace wafting gently in the breeze and lots of daisies, buttercups, dandelions and clover appeared. Everything in the garden looked lovely. It was then we noticed the obviously very happy bees had decided to stay, making a nest for themselves in the roof of our newly renovated garage. Not wanting to destroy them we paid a beekeeper to come and collect them. It took three visits for him to finally remove the last of the bees and weeks for us to clean up, returning the garage (now a usable summer room) to its former glory.

Will we be taking part in no mow May again next year? The jury is out on that one, although we have noticed a bumper crop of fruit growing on our apple and pear trees, as well as more blueberries than we have ever had on our bush before, so maybe it is worth doing it again.

Nature Notes

Wildlife in the Garden

Heeding a plea from environmentalists, I did not mow the lawn during May to allow any wild flowers to grow which would attract insects and benefit wildlife generally. The buttercups and daisies put on a good show and the pigeons liked the chickweed seeds and no doubt lots of other little creatures had a good time. Apart from an impressive hay crop I was struck by the variety of wild flowers blooming in the garden, which at any other time would be called weeds.

There were over 20 different wild flowers, mostly with small insignificant blooms, but when looked at closely many can be as eye-catching as our larger garden flowers.

Above is a photo of two of these little weeds and also a photo of a pair of ladybird larvae apparently drinking dew instead of doing what they are supposed to do, which is devouring the greenfly and blackfly which are also thriving in this eco-friendly environment.

THEY SAID IT WOULDN'T LAST!

Pam and Doug celebrate their 70th Wedding Anniversary

We - Pamela Browne and Douglas Alcock - met while Douglas was in the Army Cadets, longing to join the Royal Marines. He was accepted and signed for seven years' service. We wanted to get married; our parents thought we should wait but we persuaded them to agree. Douglas also had to have permission from the Marines. Because Douglas was going abroad, we married in the registry office in Colchester on Saturday 7th August 1951.

Douglas was posted to Malta and Egypt where there were problems; we sent letters to each other every day. In 1958 he left the Royal Marines and joined Essex Police. After training he spent the first few years in Colchester, then in Harlow as a dog handler and finally Stansted. We had a police house in High Lane. We liked Stansted very much and still do. We bought a house in Croasdaile Road and still live there. We have a lovely family: two daughters, four grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

RSPB STORT VALLEY

www.rspb.org.uk/groups/stortvalley

Swifts will have already left for Africa by mid-August. Swallows (see photo below) and house martins hang around a little longer and can be seen on telephone wires, meeting up in groups ready to migrate, applying the adage 'there is safety in numbers'. It is harder to spot some of our shy all-year-round residents, such as the dunnock and wren, hidden in hedges and thickets.

Many people put food out for birds, but fewer provide a regular supply of clean water. If you keep a bird bath well topped up with water, you will tempt birds out for early morning bathing as well as provide much-needed drinking water in dry weather. It is a good idea to raise your birdbath off the ground, and place it in the open, giving birds a clear view of danger. Keeping a bird bath clean helps to prevent birds catching diseases; you should clean it regularly and change the water. A layer of algae, dead leaves or bird droppings will soon build up, so give the bath a thorough clean every week or so. Scrub the sides and bottom to remove algae and other dirt. You can use dilute household disinfectants, but make sure that you rinse the bath out thoroughly to remove any traces of chemicals. There are also non-toxic products on the market which can be used to clean bird baths.

Our first team's 2021-22 league season kicks off on Saturday 31st July, followed by the FA Cup Extra Preliminary Round scheduled for Saturday 7th August. With the FA finally completing the new National League pyramid system, we now have an extra three teams added to the Essex Senior League thus making the season a 38-game league. Add to this various cup competitions and we could well be playing over 50 games between August and April. Therefore during the summer, the emphasis has been on building a stronger squad of players, not only to replace those that have moved on, but also to be available to face the challenge on what looks like a really competitive season ahead. However, home supporters will have to wait until September to see the team in action as we play all our scheduled league and cup games away from Hargrave Park in August.

The news on our Over 45s Veterans team is that although their season does not begin till September, there have been some changes to the off-field set up of the team. Gary Cook remains as Chairman, a new joint team management team has been appointed, consisting of Julian Stanley and Tim Carey, and team captain Andy Thorpe has taken on the additional duties of players' coach. With a new sponsorship deal securing a new kit, the team is set up to take on the challenge of winning the league outright which has been denied to them these past two seasons. Please keep an eye on our social media sites for up-to-date fixture news.

STANSTED BOWLS CLUB

www.bowlsengland.com/club/stansted

We have been really pleased to welcome some potential new members to our Club over the last few weeks, and hope they have all enjoyed having a go at outdoor bowls. Our coach in training has been busy, helping new bowlers to get to grips with the basics, and hopes the guinea pig experience has not been too painful. We are hoping that before long the newcomers will boost our membership numbers and feel confident enough to participate in our weekend friendlies. The Club is suffering a bit at the moment from reduced numbers due to injuries and more important things in life like catching up with the family! The leagues are going well, notably for the Wednesday North West Essex League team. I am afraid the ladies are still coming second more often than not, but are undaunted.

The green is playing well, despite a few issues with leather-jackets (the larvae of daddy long legs) which eat the roots before emerging and leave little mounds like mini worm casts. The maintenance of the green is a never-ending job and we are really grateful for the hard work of our green team, which includes repairing and maintaining the Club's machines that keep the green in good condition throughout the season. We are hoping that, by the time this is published, we will have been able to re-open our bar and get ourselves back to the new normal, whatever that looks like. For us this will include continuing with the increased hygiene measures and staying outside whenever possible, so the outdoor furniture will continue to get good use. Luckily bowls is one of the easiest sports to participate in safely.

STANSTED HALL AND ELSENHAM CRICKET CLUB

www.shcc.hitscricket.com

At the halfway point of the league season the 1st XI are sitting on top of the Herts and Essex Border League Premier Division. The team have won eight out of nine matches and are just ahead of Nazeing Common and Matching Green. Rory McGurk has been scoring a lot of runs and Grant Ward has been taking many wickets. The 2nd XI are sitting mid-table in Division 2 and many juniors are really performing well which is hugely encouraging for the future of the Club. The juniors are playing matches at both Stansted House and Molehill Green and enjoying themselves when the weather allows. The Club would like to thank the team managers, Andrew Mackinlay, Ollie Patmore, Paul Walton and of course parents who are helping. The Club is running a cricket camp during the summer holidays and a surprise local outing for our All Stars. The Club defeated the President's XI for the first time in a while, with the young Archie Racey scoring his first hundred for the team; well done Archie, hopefully the first of many. Ed Stabb has been successful with his Essex age group trials and will represent the county later in the season.

T20 matches followed by a BBQ will be held on 5th and 19th August with our sponsors Russell Property and Nockolds LLP. All in all, the summer is going really well although the Covid 19 restrictions will generally remain in place for the rest of the season. Oddly a lot of members are going around the Club singing Sweet Caroline! Something to do with a successful England football team - hopefully.
